Thank you for standing up for fairness. You get it that we all deserve safety and respect at school. You know that it shouldn’t matter … how masculine or feminine someone is, who they like or love, whether they’re trans or queer or not, whether they’re gay, lesbian, bi, straight or not sure, who their family is, what color they are, what religion they are (if they’re any religion) or not sure, what languages they speak, where they come from, how much money their family has, how old they are, what abilities and disabilities they have, how they like or love, whether they’re gay, lesbian, bi, straight, who their family is, what color they are, what religion they are (if they’re any religion) or not sure, what languages they speak, where they come from, how much money their family has, how old they are, what abilities and disabilities they have.

It shouldn't matter!
