It shouldn't matter!

You deserve safety and respect at school.

••

how old you are

how much money your family has

where you come from

what languages you speak whether you're gay, lesbian, bi, straight or not whether your family is straight or not whether you're trans or queer or not what religion you are (if you're any religion)

what color you are

who your family is

who you like or love

how masculine or feminine you are what abilities and disabilities you have

where you come from

how much money your family has

what color you are