Thank you for standing up for fairness.
Thank you for your bravery in defending our school's rich diversity. You get it...

that it doesn't matter... what abilities and disabilities they have how old they are how much money their family has where they come from what language(s) they speak what religion(s) they are (if they're any religion) what color they are who their family is whether they're gay, lesbian, bi, straight or not whether they're trans or queer or not whether they like or love how masculine or feminine someone is

Thank you for your bravery in defending our school's rich diversity.

Thank you!
