(1) COALITION STRUCTURE – Beth

- a) The Coalition doesn't have a Board of Directors. We are not a free-standing 501(c)3 agency, but rather a true Coalition. Our Leadership Team (3 Co-Chairs and 3 Co-Secretaries) occasionally has to make decisions between monthly Coalition meetings, but most decisions are actually made at these monthly meetings by a modified consensus of all present face-to-face or by-phone.
- b) Our essential services are provided at no cost to the Coalition by member organizations and volunteers
 - Our finances are managed by our fiscal sponsor, Lifelong AIDS Alliance.
 - Our hotline is managed by King County Sexual Assault Resource Center.
 - Our meetings are hosted by Planned Parenthood of Western Washington.
 - Our web site is sponsored by Youth Guardian Services, American Friends Service Committee and the Greater Seattle Business Association. The web site is kept current partly by volunteers.
 - Our message phone and mail are hosted by American Friends Service Committee.
 - Our Intervention Team is all volunteer.
 - Our Speakers Bureau is mostly volunteer, though honoraria are encouraged.
 - Our special events planning teams are all volunteer.
 - Our fundraising and grant writing efforts are all volunteer.
 - Oversight is provided by Public Health – Seattle & King County.
- c) We contract for just two key functions:
 - With Center for Health Training for Webspinner Services (They hire Gabi Clayton, part time, to fulfill that role.)
 - With Helen Stillman, part time, in conjunction with American Friends Service Committee, for Speakers Bureau management.
- d) HELP NEEDED: Wonderful Co-Secretaries Chris Beahler and Kathy Kaminski have stepped down; and Penny may, too, as she has taken on other SSC responsibilities. Heather Carter of the Youth Suicide Prevention Project has agreed to fill one of those slots. Daniel Moore of UW and Matt Munson of Planned Parenthood of Western Washington volunteered to fill the other two.

(2) MEMBERSHIP REPORT – Beth

- a) HELP NEEDED: We need a membership chair. Piper stepped down last year and Chris was planning to take over but now can't for personal reasons. It means a commitment of a couple of hours most months and 30-40 hours in December, January or February. It could be your organization's in-kind contribution to the Coalition in lieu of dues or your personal investment in making schools safer than they were for you. You get to network by phone and email with very cool member orgs all over the country. And if you happen to be in the Puget Sound area you get occasional coffee or lunch with the Co-Chairs! Interested? Contact Beth ...

d) HRC's MEMBERSHIP – Frank, Beth

BACKGROUND: Last February, we temporarily suspended HRC's membership in the Coalition after HRC did not oppose the version of the Employment Non-Discrimination Act (ENDA) that excluded gender identity. In September, we discussed the efforts HRC has been making since that time, re: trans issues: All of HRC's Family Project programs, Welcoming Schools, All Children—All Families, and the Healthcare Equality Index, are explicitly trans-inclusive. Other projects at the HRC Foundation (Religion and Faith, Workplace Project, Center for the Study of Equality, Coming Out Project, and Youth Initiative) are also very committed to and passionate about trans inclusion, and always have been. The field department, legal department, and legislative/lobbyist team worked very hard in Montgomery County, MD where an appeal was recently thrown out that intended to strip gender identity protections from a public accommodations bill. Not only did HRC have a bunch of people on the ground, but they also raised $25,000 for the effort. In September the Coalition decided to participate in HRC's Welcoming Schools pilot program if we are able to identify schools in King County wanting to participate. Frieda Takamura suggested including a school in Spokane as well. Frank agreed in September to discuss the situation with Allison Herwitz, HRC's Legislative Director, to determine HRC's intention should ENDA be introduced again. And we agreed to revisit HRC's membership depending upon that conversation. In light of Frank Couch's absence today, the issue of HRC's membership in the Coalition was tabled until November.

(3) WASHINGTON STATE LEGISLATIVE ISSUES – Beth, Tara Borelli (by phone)

a) See the Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying Act

<http://apps.leg.wa.gov/RCW/default.aspx?cite=28A.300.285> and the Cyberbullying Act

<http://www.leg.wa.gov/pub/billinfo/2007-08/Pdf/Bills/Session%20Law%202007/5288-S.SL.pdf> .

See the OSPI/WSDA model policy <http://www.k12.wa.us/SafetyCenter/pubdocs/3207.pdf> and model procedure <http://www.k12.wa.us/SafetyCenter/pubdocs/3207P.pdf> and see this version of the model procedure; it has, in red, the Safe Schools Coalition's recommendations for strengthening the procedure:

<http://www.safeschoolscoalition.org/WSSDABullyProceduresAMENDED.pdf>

b) BACKGROUND: The Coalition formed the Law and Policy Work Group last spring, to include lobbyists from member organizations who have been meeting to discuss the Coalition's legal agenda. Recently the Work Group wrote letters to the House and Senate Education Committee Chairs requesting that they hold hearings in response to the report on bullying they recently received. The Workgroup has also made a long list of legislative wishes but hasn't gotten as far as prioritizing them. The Workgroup did discuss not making financial requests in this fiscal environment.

c) Recently, Beth met with Tara Borelli, of Lambda Legal. They discussed the possibility of our at least trying to introduce language to strengthen the Harassment, Intimidation and Bullying Act with respect to dissemination (considering that protections are useless if students don't know they have them). Tara reported on her progress drafting legislation for that purpose, which is moving along though not at the pace she had hoped. She is looking at bills and laws in other states and at settlement language Lambda has successfully negotiated in court cases.

- d) Beth also opened the Law and Policy Workgroup to include anyone in the Coalition interested in helping advocate for policy and law changes, not just member organization lobbyists. We will announce a next meeting date via the listserv.
- e) Beth also suggested that everyone to provide their personal legislative agenda for the Coalition for consideration by the Law and Policy Work Group. What laws would you want passed to strengthen existing law or to address other LGBTQ school issues? Send your input to: Penny Palmer at holdyrrhorses@verizon.net

(5) PUBLICATIONS REPORT – Beth

- a) The Washington Education Association has graciously agreed to warehouse and distribute Safe Schools Coalition publications through August, 2009. This is an in-kind contribution to the Coalition and we are SO appreciative of it and, specifically, of Paige Foy who coordinates it.
- b) HELP NEEDED: Starting September 1, 2009, we will need another member organization to take over warehousing and distribution. You need storage space -- 4'X4'X6' at most. You need to be able to fill just about 2-3 orders a month in a timely way (more for the first month or two after a new publication comes out, but that only happens every couple of years), so the cost of staff time and postage is really minimal over the long run. Your doing this job could be an in-kind contribution from your agency in lieu of dues, if you needed to offset the shipping costs. Orders come in mostly electronically. You do NOT need to handle people's payments; our fiscal agent does that. This job is just a matter of housing the reports, posters and brochures and dropping orders into the mail a couple of times a month. You do NOT need to be Washington State headquartered. We are an international coalition. PLEASE, if your organization can step up starting a year from now, let us know. Mailto:beth@safeschoolscoalition.org
- c) On the topic of publications, Frieda Takamura brought GenderPAC's Genius Index to the meeting and explained that the report's purpose is to document gender equality in U.S. universities and schools. The full report is called "The Genius Report: Gender Equality National Index for Universities and Schools." The report is published by the Gender Public Advocacy Coalition and is available on their website <http://www.gpac.org/genius>.

(6) SPECIAL EVENTS

- a) Jessica Pettit – The Bush School's Diversity Speaker Series is bringing her to Seattle the week of February 2, 2009. She has been referred to as the "Margaret Cho" of Diversity Trainers. She blends politics, humor, identity, and local flair with big city passion and energy through direct, individualized, and interactive conversations. Her workshops, seminars, and keynotes don't just leave participants invigorated but inspired and motivated to follow through with action to create change. <http://www.jessicapettitt.com/publications.htm>. The Coalition has been asked if we want to co-sponsor her visit, possibly speaking briefly as she is introduced and tabling at the event or even doing a separate event the week she is here. It can't happen unless a small ad hoc committee (maybe 3-5 people) steps up. If you would like to help make this happen, please talk with Eddie Moore at the Bush School for more information <mailto:Eddie.MooreJr@bush.edu> and/or let Beth know of your interest: <mailto:beth@safeschoolscoalition.org>
- b) The Sensei – This exciting independent film will be shown at the Seattle Lesbian and Gay Film Festival on Friday, October 24, 2008, 7:30 pm Admiral Theater. There will be a martial arts demo on stage in the half hour prior to that and a Q&A with the filmmaker(s) and star afterwards. Safe Schools Coalition has been invited to serve as "Community Co-presenters." Find out about showings in PA, NY, CA, DC and IL here: <http://www.thesenseimovie.com/> Get more info about this showing and purchase tickets here: http://seattlelgff.bside.com/2008/films/thesensei_seattlelgff2008
- c) It's STILL Elementary: The Movie and the Movement – This film, showing at the Seattle Lesbian and Gay Film Festival, 7:30 pm, October 23, 2008 at the Central Cinema, is a must-see for parents and educators. Safe Schools Coalition has been invited to serve as "Community Co-presenters." Watch clips and find out how to organize a local screening here: <http://groundspark.org/our-films-and-campaigns/elementary>. Info about this showing & tickets: http://seattlelgff.bside.com/2008/films/itsstillelementarythemovieandthemovement_seattlelgff2008
- d) Caitlin Ryan, the Executive Director of the Family Acceptance Project, was in town recently and expressed a willingness to return to do an event in conjunction with Safe Schools. Beth is talking to Ken Thompson of the Gate Foundation to seek funding for such a project. Lisa Love of

Seattle Public Schools has agreed to partner on the event. The Family Accept projects helps families support children coming out by informing families about the impact of rejection, including increases in the risk for HIV, addiction, and suicide. If we get the funding, we will put together a committee to figure out how to get those families that most need to hear Ryan's message together for an event. If you are interested in serving on a planning committee, please contact Helen: <mailto:Helen@safeschoolscoalition.org>

(9) INTERVENTION TEAM REPORT – Penny

a) We have had an increasing number of referrals since school started. Some recent calls have included:

- concerns from a parent regarding the school's welcoming of a gender variant or transgender child entering kindergarten,

- an elementary child being harassed because she has lesbian parents,
 - a gay high school student with Asperger syndrome who reports being assaulted on a regular basis and that his school administration acknowledges only the disability prejudice underlying the assaults and not the homophobia
 - a request for information.
- b) We have Intervention Specialists who each have one day a week where they cover calls coming in from our website at Safe Schools Coalition and through the King County Sexual Assault Resource Center crisis line. Calls are answered immediately 24/7 and returned by an Intervention Specialist within 24 - 48 hrs. We do everything from referring callers to our website to attending meetings at the problem school. Some calls take minimal time and some continue on for many months.

(11)THE NATIONAL SAFE SCHOOLS ROUNDTABLE (NSSR) – Gabi

- a) The National Safe Schools Roundtable (NSSR) met in Washington DC October 15-17. Gabi Clayton represented Safe Schools Coalition there. On the morning of Oct. 16th, Gabi co-presented with Ryan Schwartz on how the matrix - an online database to share information - will work. Ryan is the National Outreach and Media Relations Manager for The Respect for All Project at GroundSpark. The presentation was very well received, and several people commented that now they understand how this will work, and how it will help NSSR members in exciting ways for the safe schools movement. All afternoon on Oct. 16th we participated in an excellent anti-oppression training focused mainly on race and class oppressions. It was facilitated by Lisa Weiner-Mahfuz from The Task Force and Kim Jones from PFLAG National. On Oct. 17th, Dr. V. Paul Poteat, Assistant Professor of Counseling Psychology at Boston College presented: Trends in Research: Peer Socialization of Homophobic Attitudes and Behavior: Implications for Safe Schools Movement. The research he shared with us focused on the causes of homophobic attitudes and behavior more than on prevention. It led to some interesting questions and discussion.

(12)SAFE SCHOOLS AND MEDIA REQUESTS -- Beth

- a) Beth Reis authored the article “Making Sense of the Senseless: The Murder of Lawrence King” that appears in the latest issue of Teaching Tolerance.

- b) On the topic of media requests Beth proposed the idea of doing a media training so that we have more people in the coalition to respond to media requests. Hanna King, Billy Stultz, Kyle Rapinan, and Brandon Walter volunteered to participate.

(13) BUDGET CUTS – Beth

- a) With King County facing imminent budget cuts, organizations supporting the LGBT community are feeling the impact. Critical positions may be cut, including positions at the King County Sexual Assault Resource Center which handles the Safe Schools Coalition's crisis calls. Please draft a letter in support and tell your King County Council Members and Seattle City Council Persons to support LGBT services.

(14) ANNOUNCEMENTS

- a) BEND-IT queer youth arts and music festival – Matt Steele, et al

- ABOUT BEND IT: Bend-It is an Artist/activist collective of queer youth building radical queer community, working in an anti-oppressive framework across age, race, gender and class. Bend-It is a collective of activists and artists working to empower, build community among, and create meaningful alternatives for queer young people and their friends. Headed by young people of diverse gender identities and sexual orientations, Bend-It is committed to creating safe and accessible spaces for queer youth to exchange ideas, learn skills, and take on positions of leadership. Sensitive to the danger of placing an exclusive focus on one particular form of oppression, we seek to work together with other marginalized populations as a way to combat segregation and to defend the view that all oppressions are interrelated.
- CALL FOR QUEER YOUTH ORGANIZERS/COLLECTIVE MEMBERS. For the past seven years, Bend-It has had the exclusive goal of organizing a three-day arts festival as a meaningful, non-corporate, proactively inclusive alternative to Seattle Pride. This year the organizers have seen a need to expand Bend-It's activities and are transforming the group into a year-long collective. The project was originally the brainchild of an 18 year old and had the involvement of predominately high school aged youth. The collective is still very active with many members and benefits from a wide range of age ranges, but to fulfill its mission we would like to see a larger presence from high schooled aged youth in our collective. Volunteers generally find their work with Bend-It immediately rewarding. Volunteers quickly gain skills and connections in the music and art world as well as in the activist community. Bend-It also provides a fun and interesting environment working with other youth with similar interests and mindsets. The organization prides itself on its anti-hierarchical, non-paternalistic framework that empowers youth into positions of leadership within the organization. Volunteers will have the potential to gather skills in the following areas: Marketing/ PR, Non-Profit Business Administration, Booking, Graphic Design, Festival Planning, General Leadership Skills, Grant writing/Sponsorship, Solicitation skills, Anti-oppressive organizing, Feminist and Queer Theory. The positions we are attempting to fill are designed for youth with limited time availability. The positions vary in time commitment and responsibility. For paid positions we require a minimum 3-month commitment. The other positions are entirely flexible and work well with most high school student's schedules. Positions with heavy time commitments will be given a small stipend to compensate for their work. This is a valuable and fun way to fulfill required service learning hours. We especially encourage people of color, trans-identified, genderqueer, and most especially high-school aged young people to join. To learn more about this opportunity you can either show up at one of our meetings or meet with someone from the collective to discuss your interest in the project, answer any questions you may have, and talk about the roles that you would like to have in the collective. My suggestion is to do both. Meetings occur bi-weekly on Mondays in the community conference room at Kaladi Brothers Cafe at 7pm. (The next meetings will be on the Oct 27th, Nov 10th and 24th). To schedule a meeting with a member contact me through the email below. Matthew Steele, Matt.steele@benditbandits.org (206) 920-0680
